

ADD WAITING
JAMES 5:7-11

In today's society the term "Christian" often gets used as an adjective. We have Christian music, Christian books, and Christian schools. However, in the Bible, the term "Christian" is never used as an adjective; it is always used as a noun. And what do nouns need in order to make sentences? Nouns need verbs, and the same is true of your discipleship. In other words, to be a Christian requires you to add some verbs to your faith. Today, we examine one of the verb that James indicates we need to add to our faith.

WHY DO WE NEED TO ADD WAITING?

1. We need to add waiting because we suffer from wait _____ (e.g. Abraham, Absalom, Prodigal Son).

2. We need to add waiting because God specializes in wait _____ (e.g. Joseph, Esther, Jesus).

WHAT DO WE LOSE WHEN WE REFUSE TO ADD WAIT?

1. We subtract the opportunity for _____ development (James 1:2-4; Romans 5:3-5).

2. We subtract the opportunity for deepening our _____ (2 Peter 1:5-6; Psalm 25:5; 27:14; 37:7; 38:15; 40:1; 62:1).

WHAT DO JAMES' EXAMPLES TEACH US ABOUT WAITING?

1. The farmer teaches us to wait _____ (James 5:7; Acts 16:8-10).

2. The prophets teach us to wait _____ (James 5:10; Lamentations 3:25-26; Isaiah 40:31; James 1:17).

3. Job teaches us to wait _____ (James 5:11; Job 1-2; 42:10, 12; James 1:12).
